SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT BY AND BETWEEN THE CHAPTER 7 TRUSTEE, SANTANDER BANK, N.A. SUCCESSOR IN INTEREST TO PREFERRED CAPITAL BIDCO, INC., AND RAJANDRA PATEL, M.D.

This settlement agreement and compromise (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between Gary F. Seitz, the chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee") of the estate of Atashbeharm Corporation, Inc., the above-captioned debtor (the "Debtor"); Santander Bank, N.A., formerly known as Sovereign Bank, N.A., formerly known as Sovereign Bank, who is the successor in interest to Preferred Capital BIDCO, Inc., ("Santander Bank" or "Bank") and Rajandra Patel ("Patel"). In furtherance of the Agreement, the Parties set forth as follows:

RECITALS

1. On June 14, 2013, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 7 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Petition Date").
2. The Debtor operated its business as full service restaurant serving authentic Indian Cuisine, located at 834 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Debtor's restaurant, prior to filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy protection, was called Palace on the Ben.
3. On June 17, 2013, Gary F. Seitz, was appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee as Chapter 7 Trustee and has continued serve in that capacity since.
4. The Debtor is a Pennsylvania corporation with a principal place of business located at 834 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

5. The Debtor leased the commercial real estate where it operated its restaurant, Palace on the Ben. The Debtor has an equity interest in various restaurant equipment and furniture, including but not limited to, tables, chairs, coolers, sinks, cookers, fryers, stoves, and touch screen terminals ("Sale Assets").

6. In addition to the Sale Assets, the Debtor also has an interest in a Pennsylvania liquor license, R-1319; Lid No. 56332 (the "Liquor License").

7. The largest secured creditor of the Debtor is Santander Bank, who claims to hold a blanket security interest over the Debtor's Sale Assets and Liquor License (collectively the "Collateral") pursuant to a UCC-1 financing statement, filed on December 4, 2006.

8. Santander Bank further claims to have a lien on the Debtors Liquor License, pursuant to a Stock Pledge and Security Agreement, executed on November 22, 2006, which purports to pledge a security interest in the Debtors Liquor License.

9. Patel also filed a UCC-1 financing statement on November 29, 2006 against the Sale Assets and Liquor License and alleges a security interest in Collateral as well. Pursuant to the Standby Creditors Agreement, however, Patel and Santander Bank agreed that Santander Bank's claim is senior to Patel's claim.

10. Upon information and belief, based upon a search of the public record and the representations of counsel for Patel, a continuation statement was filed by Patel on November 29, 2008, with regard to his UCC-1 financing statement as to the Collateral.

11. Upon information and belief, based upon the representations made by counsel for Santander Bank, the UCC-1 financing statement lapsed on June 18, 2012. It is the position of Santander Bank that the lapse of the UCC-1 financing statement has no practical effect on Santander Bank's perfection or its priority as a lien creditor because the Standby Creditors Agreement was executed prior to the lapse occurring.

12. Although there was a dispute as to the priority of the two secured creditors holding the greatest secured interests in the Collateral, Patel and Sovereign Bank consent to the Trustee selling the Sale Assets and to a carve-out of their respective interest, to provide the funds needed for the chapter 7 trustee to liquidate the assets of the estate, provided the net proceeds are distributed to them as set forth herein.

13. On November 19, 2013, counsel for the Trustee filed a Motion for an Order Authorizing The Trustee to Sell the Sale Assets Pursuant to Section 363(b) and (f) a public auction on December 5, 2013.

14. On November 19, 2013, counsel for the Trustee sought authority from the Bankruptcy court to retain Quaker City Auctioneers, Inc., as Auctioneer and Sales Agent for the Sale Assets. (Docket # 32). That application was granted on December 6, 2013. (Docket # 44).

15. On November 19, 2013, counsel for the Trustee sought authority from the Bankruptcy court to retain Pennsylvania Liquor License Exchange as Sales Agent to sell the Liquor License. (Docket #33). That application was granted on January 6, 2014. (Docket #47).

16. Upon information provided to the Trustee, in the exercise of his business judgment, the Trustee believed that the Sale Assets had significantly more value if sold at a public auction than if sold through private sale. In addition, he believed that the value would be enhanced through the auction process. Therefore, the Trustee sought to liquidate the Sale Asset, in the best interest of the creditors by utilizing a professional auctioneer, subject to bankruptcy court approval pursuant to his Motion for Sale of Property under Section 363(b). (Docket #30).

17. Upon information provided to the Trustee, in the exercise of his business judgment, he believes that the Liquor License, if marketed by a professional Sales Agent has significantly more value than if he were to market the Liquor License himself. In addition, the marketing exposure a professional Sale Agent in the Liquor License industry could provide may be able to spark competitive interest in the Liquor License and add additional value to the estate.

18. The Trustee's investigation, including information from Debtor, suggests that the liens on the Sale Assets and possible liens Liquor License, and the claims of all creditors, including administrative claims, will not be fully satisfied upon effectuating the sale of the Sale Assets and the Liquor License, but will yield a substantial return to the estate, in the best interest of the estate.

19. All or a substantial part of the Sale Assets were sold pursuant to the Sale Order entered by this Court on December 4, 203 (Docket #42 granting the Trustee Motion filed under Docket #30). There is currently a potential purchaser for the Liquor License. However, as set forth above, the Trustee intends to continue to utilize the services of the Auctioneer and Sales Agent who will serve to continue to aggressively marketing the Liquor License for sale through and including the date of the sale hearing.

20. The Trustee believes that the sale of the Liquor License is in the best interest of creditors and of the Bankruptcy estate. Once a satisfactory offer has been obtained, the Trustee intends immediately to request authority to sell the Liquor License, in an effort to provide the greatest possible net return to the Debtor's Bankruptcy estate and creditors.

21. To effectuate the Trustee's marketing and sales plan, the Trustee has discussed the idea and Bankruptcy ramifications with various professional auctioneers and sales agents. The Trustee is concerned that professionals will be unavailable to assist the Trustee to administer the estate unless they can be paid from the cash proceeds of the sale of the Sale Assets and the Liquor License.

22. Both Santander Bank and Patel claim that the Debtor's indebtedness to them is secured by, among other things, a perfected a security interest in all of Collateral.

23. The Trustee maintains that, to the extent any party holds a valid security interest in the debtor's assets, the Trustee has authority pursuant to §506(c) to pay out of any recovery from any sale, the reasonable, necessary costs and expenses of preserving, or disposing of the assets.

24. The Parties agree that the Trustee is uniquely situated to efficiently administer the assets of the Debtor's Bankruptcy estate.

25. In furtherance of the amicable administration of this case for the benefit of all creditors—and as a result of extensive negotiations—the Parties have agreed to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, which provides funding for a distribution to chapter 7 unsecured creditors and an amicable procedure for the efficient liquidation of the assets and conclusion of this case. After review of the assets of this estate and the status of liens perfected by Santander Bank and Patel, the Trustee believes that a settlement based upon the terms set forth herein, is in the best interests of the estate and all the creditors.
